Series 1 (10 X 26')

The New Legends of Monkey is inspired by the classic novel Journey to the West by Wu Ch'eng-En, in which a young woman embarks upon a quest to restore the glory of The Monkey King. Giving herself a new quest name of Tripitaka, all she has to do is to defeat the demons that rule the earth by reawakening the Monkey King from a 500 year sleep. Her first attempt to steal his crown from a demon backfires and she has to flee her own disguised as a monk. She awakens the Monkey King and whilst he is adjusting to his new reality, she meets two other faded supreme beings who now go by the names of Sandy and Pigsy. Desperately trying to regain their godly powers, they join forces with Tripitaka to reach the Western Mountains and find the Sacred Scrolls. On the way they are captured by Monkey King obsessives, glamourised by a mystical, shamanic demon and attacked by the deadly Shuriken Kin Demon. Whilst the Monkey King, Sandy and Pigsy's powers grow stronger every day, Tripitaka is tricked into believing she has found her mother and she is imprisoned by the Demon Davari, who has taken control of the Secret Scrolls. Her three friends come to her aid and it is a race against time to stop him from translating the scrolls and achieving immortality.

Series 2 (10 X 26')

Shocked by the return of Monkey and the defeat of Davari, the Demons unite to fight back. Monkey admits to his friends that he can't really remember where he scattered the seven scrolls and their quest to retrieve them all is going to be long and hard. Fortunately the first scroll that they recover is the scroll of knowledge from which they learn that the other six are each protected by a powerful guardian. Whilst our friends manage to defeat the Demon Lords, each encounter gives them more knowledge of the scrolls and the quest. Demon Lord Gorm and Hagfish steal two of the scrolls from Tripitaka and use them to demand submission from the other demons. Tales of their epic quest and victories start to reach the repressed human population which begins to rebel against demon rule...
